There are two methods of loading the firmware for the Watering System Controller:

1. Loading a pre configured image as described in the folder "Pre Configured Image"
2. Loading the various files individually as described in the magazine article. These files are located in the folder "Individual Files".